UK Pharmacist Advocates Take on the Extinction Rebellion

In late April, Pharmacy Declares took part in the Planetary Health Hub's Extinction Rebellion demonstration outside the Department of Health and Social Care and the House of Commons (UK Parliament.)

At this event, hundreds of health professionals and concerned citizens peacefully gathered for the demonstration in order to champion a common cause and to foster community. Participants enjoyed art, experiential learning, talks and panels by experts, and family-friendly activities all while advocating for an official public health campaign on climate change.

Some specific asks included speeding up the phase out of oil and gas, ensuring clean air for all, and implementing mechanisms to increase long term thinking on the climate and biodiversity crises within parliament.

Highlighting A New Network for Pharmacists

This month, Health Care Without Harm Europe announced its latest initiative: Pharmacists for Greener Healthcare. Focusing on the complex issue of pharmaceutical pollution, this new network welcomes pharmacists from across Europe to share their experiences, challenges, and best practice with each other in order to coordinate advocacy activities to tackle pharmaceutical pollution and its contribution to antimicrobial resistance.
